

Contest Rules

For the month of August 1, 2014 thru September 30, 2014

1. You have subscribed to the Fresh Word Mailing List available here:

<http://eepurl.com/LCcE5>

2. You have to repost a Fresh Word Blog, in any of the following social media sites: Facebook, Google +, or Twitter.

The repost, share, or retweet must take place in the month of August & September to fulfill step 2.

(So sometime in August and September share our blog on Facebook, Google +, or Twitter and you could win $200.00)

(A Fresh Word Recommends that you take a screenshot or other saved images as evidence of your repost, share, or retweet.)

If you have fulfilled the requirements above you are eligible!

So how do you win?

Glad you asked!

In one of the blogs published, a rare factoid or clue will be provided. It won't stand out, you will have to actually read the blogs in order to "catch it". Towards the end of the month in the middle of a freshly published blog you will read the following:

CONTEST CLUE: (a question will be asked regarding the clue/factoid), An email address will be provided where you can email the factoid/clue to.

The first person that has met the requirements above that can email us the correct clue/factoid from an email account on our subscription list...wins!

Two important considerations:

1. We will tediously insure that the winner fulfilled all the requirements prior to the email being sent. It's up to the contestant to provide the proof. Warning: Facebook and Twitter reposts sometimes "fall off", so save a screenshot or pic.
2. If we have multiple persons who send us emails at the exact same time then those persons will have to evenly share the winnings.
